Bettman Urges Adherence To Constitution

TENDENCIES TO DRIFT ANALYZED IN SALEM TALK

Bettman Plea For Entry Into Politics By Americans

INEFFICIENCY, NOT GRAFT, IS COSTLY

Combination and Buying
Of Government Draws
Official's Criticism

The gradual tendency of American governmental policies to drift from the form of representative government as established in the constitution of the United States in national, state, county and city politics was the subject of a stirring address by Robert Bettman, Ohio attorney general, in his address to a gathering of Salem civic organizations at the Memorial building
Thursday night.

The general lack of interest in politics throughout the country;
the failure of more highly qualified individuals to run for public office;
the late establishment of innumerable commissions, bureaus and advisory groups in both state and national governments, were discussed as direct "violations of the principles and principles of the constitution." The city manager plan in municipal government, as used in Cleveland and Cincinnati were mentioned as contrary to constitutional precepts.

Mr. Bettman was the guest of the city manager at the meeting, held under the auspices of the Salem Kiwanis club, in observance of "Constitution Week." Approximately 100 Kiwanians, members of Romanian and Quota clubs, Salem Business Bureau and Manufacturers Association, together with guests,
men and women, were present.

Sponsored by Kiwanis
the meeting was arranged by L. K. Smith, publicity committee, and W. L. Fick, H. L. Mc-Cormack, W. L. Fick, and Fredrick Schuler, chairman. Schuler was in charge and introduced the speaker. William Felsen, Salem baritone soloist, offered several vocal selections. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ruth E. Berry.

Mr. Bettman spoke of the constitution, traced its origin and discussed changing ideas of governmental bodies, as related to that document.

The American form of government has passed its 140th anniversary and is the oldest permanent government in the world. It was established after its founder invested into all other forms of government, the monarchies, the aristocracies, the autocracies, and the tyrannies. The success of our government can be traced down to the division made between legislative, executive and judicial government. It is an absolute repudiation of the constitution is contrary to the spirit of the constitution.

In a few of our cities which are giving into a bureaucratic form of government, one made up of a bureaucracy which has both legislative and executive powers.

Bluffton Sustains $350,000 Fire Loss

Bluffton, O., Sept. 20.—The main building of the National Lime and Stone company's quarry here is a total loss of $350,000 blaze which destroyed the structure yesterday afternoon.

The fire broke out in the main building by residential section and spread by flying sparks, but was kept under control.

The fire broke out on the large stone pile in the plant or defective stone was believed to have been the cause of the conflagration.

Firemen were made idle by the fire.

Woman Stabbed To Death With Ice Pick

Alex. O., Sept. 20.—Police and firemen today were conducting an extensive search for the slayer of a woman who was stabbed to death late yesterday at her home here. The woman had been stabbed more than 30 times with a weapon which police believe was an ice pick.

The body was found on a bed in the room of E. Washburn, a jewelry dealer, called neighbors after he was unable to get an answer at Mrs. Hook's apartment door.

Executive Dies

London, O., Sept. 20.—Leverett
L. Cline, president of The American Cattle Co., was dead at his home today. He died last night after an illness of nearly a year.

Whole Family Enroll At University

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Huckins and their daughter Helen (right at bottom), of Champaign, Ill., have entered as undergraduates at the University of Illinois. Mr. Huckins has enrolled in the College of Law as a junior, while his wife will finish where she left off a number of years ago as a senior in the School of Music and will study voice. The daughter has enrolled as a freshman in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

STRIKE LOOMS IN CLEVELAND

Needle Crafts Are Making Demands Upon Employers

Cleveland, Sept. 20.—A strike in the needle crafts industry here loomed today following a mass meeting last night when members voted unanimously to walk out Dec.
31—the expiration date of their present agreement—unless conditions they demand are granted by employers before that date.

The demands of the Union Clothing and Dress Makers include a 40-hour five-day week, an increase in wages and the abolishment of the "sweat shop."

Financial and moral support of the International organization was pledged to the local unionists by David Dubinsky of New York, International president.

Dubinsky predicted, however, that if the strike does go into effect it will be a short-lived affair. He declared that this is an age of short strikes because "the employer has become educated to the fact that even when he wins in a long drawn out struggle, he loses in the end."

Lindbergh Off For Southern Voyage

Miami, Fla., Sept. 20.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh took off from here at 9:02 a. m. today for Hydrant, the first stop on his inauguration of a passenger service to several South American cities.

Flying a tri-motor Fokker, Lindbergh circled the field once after a short trial flight and headed in a southeasterly direction.

Accompanying the colonel were his wife, the former Anne Morrow, officials of the Pan American Airways and Glenn H. Curtiss, pioneer aviator.

Cold Weather Cause of School Closing

Bridgeport, O., Sept. 20.—Cold weather is today being responsible for the closing of West End school here, as the new heating plans have not been completed as yet.

Bridgeport is in the same valley
as Hancock which went on record as the coldest town in Ohio yesterday with a temperature reading of 28 degrees.

Negro Drowns

Columbus, O., Sept. 20.—Joe Ray, 27, negro, died here today, having drowned in a few inches of water when he fell face down in a tiny stream.

NIGHT FAIRS PLANNED FOR COLUMBIANA 1930 AGRICULTURE EXHIBIT

Cold Weather Lowers Attendance at Recent Lisbon Event; Plan Four-Day Attraction Next Year;
Discuss Erection of New Buildings

The 80th annual fair of the Columbiana County Agricultural society was not the financial success it has been in other years, due to the fact that the weather was against it.

The receipts for the first day have been reported about $700 under that of the "big day" last year, and this would mean an attendance
loss of approximately 1,400.

So far as entries are concerned, the list was much larger than that of 1928. Many people drove to Lisbon Wednesday evening believing that there would be a night fair, and expressed keen disappointment that the gates had been closed.

This, however, is to be corrected
next year when there will be a night fair, and it may run either four or five nights.

There is also considerable agitation at this time to have the county fair set back one week, or having it scheduled for the second week in September instead of the third week as has been the custom for some years. By this scheme, the fair would follow the corn at Can-field and at Canton and would insure a far larger race card than was the case this year. Some of the members of the board of directors favor this plan, while others are opposed to it.

More buildings have also been urged for the housing of live stock exhibits. The fair management has been put to more or less expense each year erecting temporary quarters for livestock.

At the next meeting of the board of directors final conclusions may be reached with this end in view.

The complete official premium list will not be announced for several weeks.

Ruth Rupert of New Waterford
again won the pony race and was set back 25 feet from the wire by Starter Wise, who told the crowd that the little girl would have the best of the race no matter how much of a handicap the other ponies were given. There was a field of nine in the half-mile pony race
Thursday, three more than entered Wednesday.

Head of Family of Thirty-three Dies

Alliance, O., Sept. 20.—Investigation was started today into the death of Mike Goodren, 75-year-old father of 24 children who was found by his wife lying dead beside his delivery truck late yesterday.

Intoxicated sausage was believed to have been the cause of the death. Goodren was reported to have complained recently to Food Inspector F. L.
Carr that his entire family became ill after eating sausage.
A post mortem was held today to definitely establish the cause of the death.

Goodren was the father of 23 children by his first wife and one by his second who is also the mother of nine children by a former marriage, making a total of 33 children in the family.

CLERK DETAINED IN DAYTON FUND SHORTAGE CASE

Treasurer of Soldiers'
Home Resigns; $4,000
Reported Missing

Dayton, O., Sept. 20.—The pithy hand of scandal today smote the Dayton branch of the National Soldiers' home here.

The treasurer of the organization has resigned and a clerk has been arrested. A shortage of $4,000 was said to have been disclosed in the accounts of the institution.

Washington dispatches hinted at a federal investigation of the banking methods at the national home branch here.

Major Bernis Brien, treasurer, made known his resignation late yesterday.

It was learned today, however,
that $4,000 was allegedly embezzled from the "post fund," which is made up of deposits of pensions by residents of the home and is handled by a "bank" within the institution.

Harry Spreng, a clerk in the treasurer's office, was arrested early today and an immediate grand jury investigation is planned. Spreng recently refused to accept the treasurership of the Soldiers' Home branch at Bath, N. Y.

The shortages were disclosed while he was on a vacation, but he was not publicly known until today.

High officials of the Dayton home made it clear that Major Brien is above reproach in connection with the embezzlement. "It is unfortunate that his name should become linked with such an affair," they said.

Inspections of the accounts of the organization are made annually and semi-annually by war department auditors and although the deficiencies extended over a long period of time, Spreng's alleged method-were not easily discovered.

Many telegraphic protests have been made to war department officials at Washington, D. C., against Major Brien's resignation.

Ohio Village Held As Being "All Wet"

New Lexington, O., Sept. 20.— Somerset, a little village which nestles in the wooded hills of this county and which was the home of Philip Sheridan, Civil war general, is "wet" and it would welcome any modification of the dry law, according to the current issue of the "American Issue," official
"mouthpiece" of the Anti-Saloon League, which was received here today.

An extract from its "Editor's Column" under the caption
"Somerset is Wet" reads as follows:

"Wets are in the majority in the town of Somerset. Perry county, according to a letter from A. J. Kyle, publisher there."

Somerset is not far removed from New Straitsville, which is regarded by some as the "wettest spot" in the state. New Straitsville "moonshine" is one of the "best sellers" in the illegal liquor market.

Jockeys Hurt In Columbus Event

Columbus, Sept. 20.—One jockey is in Mt. Carmel hospital here today fighting for his life and another is in the same hospital suffering from less serious hurts.

Both were thrown from their mounts in the first race at Beulah park yesterday afternoon.

Arvin Gardner, 15-year-old boy jockey from Joplin, Mo., suffered a fractured skull and he has a hole in the side of his head where a horse tramped on it.

Lee Hardy, 21, of Lexington, Ky., suffered a fractured collar bone. He will recover.

Held For Arson

Wilmington, O., Sept. 20.—Owen
Shadley, 18, and Harry Mercer, 18, both of Sabina, near here, today face charges of arson, following their alleged admissions to state troop marshals that they had set fire to a barn on a farm in this county.

Injured In Fall

East Liverpool, Sept. 20.—Robert Fraser, 38, laborer for J. A. Bryan, brick contractor, was seriously injured Thursday when he fell 30 feet from the wall of a new building at the Putters' Supply company's plant, Washington st.

Not Dead, Just Drunk

Bellaire, O., Sept. 20.—Lawrence Kurrin, who was thought to have been burned to death in the Powhatan mine fire, was found drunk in a house joint in Powhatan, officials said today.

Still Missing

EARL A. RITCHIE, constable of Perry township, who is wanted by Salem police on a charge of resisting an officer in execution of his duties and for the non-payment of a five-year-old fine, is still at large today, police state.

Ritchie, a candidate for mayor at the August primaries, has been an object of search by the police department since Tuesday night, when he escaped from Special Patrolman Michael Welch, who had served an execution for collection of the fine on him.

George Bricker, West Pershing
ave., who was found guilty by Mayor Phil G. Hiddleton on a charge of resisting an officer, is still in city jail.

NOTED LECTURER DIES OF WOUND

Phantom Slayer Shoots From Doorstep Of Residence

Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—The cold-blooded shooting of Frank Reed Whitely, 63-year-old noted painter, lecturer and author, by a phantom assassin on the doorstep of his quaint little home here last night confronted police today with one of the most baffling murders in the city's crime annals.

Discovery of a mystery note among the artist's possessions led police to discount the robbery theory evolved at first.

The insistent ringing of his doorbell called the internationally-famous landscape artist to the door of his old fashioned two-story dwelling about 10 p. m. A single shot rang out and Whitely crumpled in the white marble doorway of his home.

He sustained a bullet wound through the heart. The sound of the slayer's footsteps was heard through the street as he fled but no one saw the actual shooting.

The shot aroused the neighbors of the artist in the little quiet street and within five minutes a neighborhood doctor pronounced him dead.
Whitely's wife and a daughter,
with whom he spent the summer,
are still at a Maine artist colony at Orono, Me.

Police were at a loss to think of any motive for the crime other than robbery until the discovery of a note among the artist's possessions early today. None of the officials would discuss the note nor give any information regarding its contents.

County Officials In Fatal Auto Wreck

Bryan, O., Sept. 20.—One Williams county commissioner is dead today and the two others are recovering from minor hurts as the result of an automobile collision, near here, yesterday.

W. H. Young suffered a severed jugular vein and he died enroute to a hospital at Defiance.

Jack Zeen and Sylvester Townsend, who with Young made up the board of county commissioners, sustained minor injuries.

The automobile in which they were riding collided with an automobile which was said to have been driven by Harold Calvin.

Auto Strikes Woman

East Liverpool, Sept. 20.—Miss Catherine Behout, 532 College st., suffered a fractured collar bone and lacerations to her face and head when struck by an automobile driven by T. C. Kirschner, 29, said by police to be from California, while crossing Lisbon st., near the Spring Grove cemetery.

Tar Explodes

Cleveland, Sept. 20.—Fire, accompanied by ten minor explosions of tar drums, destroyed a one-story frame building occupied by the Warren Roofing Co. here today.
Loss was estimated at $2,500.

Bus Charter Refused

Sebring, Sept. 20.—Basing their decision on previous principles laid down by the supreme court of Ohio, the Utilities commission refused to grant the Sebring-Alliance Bus company a charter.

Speedy Bootlegger Loses Liquor

Lisbon, Sept. 20.—A basket containing four quart bottles of liquor was dropped on the street after Patrolman B. F.
Rollins fired his pistol in the air when he was chasing a suspect who has so far eluded arrest. The liquor is now in the possession of Mayor Robert B. Clark.

Rollins was attracted when he saw the carrier of the basket continually turning his head and looking at the officer. The latter then gave chase, but did not catch up to the suspect who darted between two houses on East Chestnut st. and ran over a hill.

OFFICIAL TELLS CONFESSION OF WIFE'S SLAYER

Peacock Refreshed After Day of Rest From Court Room

BURNED BODY AFTER 5 DAYS

Clothing of Dead Girl Identified During Trial

Court House, White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Captain Michael I. Silverstein, acting chief of police of Mount Vernon, resumed the witness stand as the first witness today at the trial of Earl F. Peacock for the murder of his wife, Dorothy.

Silverstein, a heavy set, bald-headed official with a positive inflexion in his voice related how Peacock had confessed to strangling
his wife in his apartment last April 21 following a quarrel and then carrying the body away in his automobile to a Woods near Scar-dale.

There the chief said he wound a piece of cord around her neck "to make sure she was dead."

Peacock told me that four or five days later he went back and burned
the body," said Silverstein.

The courtroom was packed with spectators, including many flap-pant Peacock sat beside his mother, Mrs. Catherine Peacock, at defense counsel's table. He seemed refreshed as a result of yesterday's court holiday.

— Goes To Scene

Silverstein told how Peacock accompanied police officials to the scene and went over the crime with them. He identified a blood stained shirt which Peacock had admitted was his. He also identified a number of pictures of the scene where the body was found.

A pair of black suede pumps were passed to Captain Silverstein, he identified them as the slippers Peacock said he took from his wife's body before he set it afire. These pumps were found later in Dorothy's hope chest in her mother's home where Peacock had placed them.

The 45-calibre gun which Peacock used in striking his wife on the head during the quarrel was also identified by Silverstein.

"Was the revolver loaded?" District Attorney Frank H. Coyne asked.

"It was," replied Silverstein.

The blood stained coat Dorothy wore at the time of her death was identified by Silverstein. Peacock had told him that was the coat, the police officer said.

Coastal Hurricane Kills 30 In Mexico

Mexico City, Sept. 20.—Thirty persons perished in a coastal hurricane off Puerto Vallarta, Jalisco, when a launch capsized while conveying them to the mainland, said a dispatch from Puerto Vallarta, today.

The tropical storm came up suddenly while employees of the hacienda
De Ixtapa, owned by Compania
Montgomery, an American concern, were enroute home from an island where they had been having a picnic.

FIRE SUDDENLY ROARS THROUGH CROWDED ROOM

Seventy-Five Injured In Catastrophe; Many Are Saved

SEE CIGARET AS CAUSE OF BLAZE

Owner Claims Bomb Was Cause; Theories Are Scouted

Detroit, Sept. 20.—Criminal negligence was charged today by Assistant Prosecutor Duncan
McCrea in the study club fire which took the lives of nine men and seven women and sent 50 more to hospitals.

McCrea ordered that Marty Cohn, proprietor of the club be taken into custody.

Detroit, Sept. 20.—Sixteen persons, seven of them women, perished
when an explosion and fire swept the study club, a cabaret here, at 2 o'clock this morning. The number of injured was estimated at 75.

Cause of the disaster had not been definitely established this morning.
A "wet bomb" was blamed by Marty Cohn, manager of the cabaret.

Many of the dead were found in heaps near windows that had been boarded up to muffle the sound of midnight revelries. More bodies were found heaped up on a stairway landing. Still others died in attempts to leap to safety from second story windows.

Most of the dead and injured were in a dance hall or in dining rooms on the second floor.

Fimsy draperies and paper
mache effects decorated the dance hall. In addition to the boarded up windows there were "false" windows of plaster and drapes.

Even the fire escape exits were draped covered.

Most of the draperies were wax covered because the wax gave a lustrous effect. When the flames first sprung upward from somewhere in the basement, they waded drapes burned like tissue paper, with a succession of sharp reports.

— Blames "Wet Bomb"

Cohn was taken to headquarters for questioning. His "wet bomb" theory was declared "preposterous" by Inspector Henry J. Garvin of the crime and bomb squad.

Both Garvin and Fire Marshal
Gabe Goldwater blamed the disaster on a carelessly tossed away match or cigarette. The fire started, they said, on the stairway to the second floor and was swept upward when Beatrice Heath, check room girl, opened the front door to call for help.

John Duval Dodge, automobile salesman and two companions were passing the "club" when they heard the confusion. Dodge jumped from his car and sought his way into the downstairs corridor.

With his companions, Thomas Pendleton and Jack Carney, Dodge was credited with saving nine women and three men.

Taxi drivers also carried many others to safety.

Every agency of the police department was ordered into action to investigate the disaster. Every available member of the crime and bomb squad, the homicide squad, the detective bureau and the arson
unit were on duty.

Children Witness Tragic Home Scene

Cleveland, Sept. 20.—Two hysterical small children were being taken care of by sympathetic police matrons today while their parents lay near death in hospitals here—the mother the victim of an attack
with a meat cleaver by their father, who later attempted to take his own life by slashing his throat with a razor.

A few hours after Mrs. Nellie Radonoski, 36, was found, her hands nearly severed from her arms, and a deep cut across her back, her husband, Henry Radnoski, 34, staggered into a gasoline filling station, his throat gashed, and gasped: "Call police. I've killed myself."

The family tragedy was said to have culminated a quarrel over the amount of money Mrs. Radnoski spent on a recent trip to Europe.
Radnoski's attack on his wife was witnessed by their two small children Walter, 4, and Stella, 2.

Fear For Life of British Noblewoman

London, Sept. 20.—Considerable anxiety was expressed today over the condition of Lady Diana Duff-Cooper, internationally famous, society beauty, to whom a son was born early this week.

Revelation that Lady Diana was battling for her life due to complications which followed the birth of a son, her first child, resulted in a flood of solicitous inquiries at the nursing home where she is staying.

AN IDEA ON PRISONS

One of the latest penal reforms in Prussia is a course of adaption to freedom for long-term prisoners whose release is imminent. Judge Gentz, of the Prussian Ministry of Justice, in explaining the new law, said that in the half-way stage to freedom the last few months of a prisoner's sentence may be spent in apprenticeship to a tradesman, so that his days will be spent on parole and only his nights in the prison cell. In that way, the prisoner, upon his release, has something definite to turn to for a livelihood and the pains of the sudden transition to independence are minimized.

A prisoner should no more be turned out into the world unprepared than a deep sea diver should be allowed to emerge from his diving suit without a gradual release of pressure that he has been under. It is dangerous. Long-term prisoners are not children any more; they do not learn easily and frequently the struggle to support themselves after release is so discouraging that they are forced back into the criminal ways of which prison was supposed to have cured them.

Society has never taken a definite stand on whether prison confinement is for punishment or correction. If incarceration is merely a polite social sort of revenge, it is perfectly all right that men should be shut away from the world for long periods at the end of which time, they will be turned out with no more equipment to make their way than they had when they entered prison.

If imprisonment is for the purpose of correction, which is certainly doubtful, generally speaking, the man or woman facing release should be equipped to make an honest living instead of being forced by circumstances to revert to the method which landed them behind the bars in the first place. The world has a great deal to learn about the care of its prisoners. Many of them must be classified as irreclaimables, many more lack only the chance. The Prussian idea of gradual adaption has a great deal to commend it.

THE DISTANCE TERRORISM

At this distance it may be impossible to obtain an accurate slant on the whys connected with the terrorism, the bludgeoning and the killing incident to a strike of textile mill workers in the Gastonia, S. C. region, but judging by what gets into the newspapers the people of that neighborhood are gradually eucherizing themselves out of permanent jobs.

Labor wars are costly affairs. They cause manufacturers to lose clients. They cause workers to lose jobs. They cause communities to deteriorate and die of dry rot. They hamper progress and bring about stagnation of retail business. In general, they are detrimental to everyone, from the employer to the employee and from the lowest resident of a city to the highest.

There has been much blood spilled in the South Carolina textile war. There may be more blood shed. Why? Because workers listened to radical and self-appointed "leaders" instead of reasoning out for themselves the situation that arose. More wages was the cry. There is no way of knowing whether more wages could be paid, or if more wages were needed. It appears that communistic spellbinders got into the field, organized the workers, called a strike, and otherwise rode high-handed over the weaklings who trailed along with them.

Labor disputes which result in strikes, shootings, midnight assassinations and such are not conducive to healthy industrial or community growth. The sooner Gastonia, S. C. finds this out and puts a stop to the civil warfare in its city, the better off that entire region will be. Arbitration will do more than force where labor disputes are concerned.

Frenchmen are becoming individualists in their dress. At a recent fashion meet, Minister of War Painleve appeared in a morning coat, but wore a blue shirt, and a day or two later Prince Murat at tended the Longchamps races wearing a double-breasted sack coat and a silk hat. Maybe they were posing as representatives of an American reception committee for visiting royalty.

We note that dry agents, out near Decatur, Indiana, recently seized another "biggest distillery yet discovered." If for no other reason than the novelty it would afford, we wish that some plain, every-day nondescript, distilling plant would be seized, one of these days.

Since it has developed that eighteen-year-old boys are being used by dry agents down in Tennessee as informers, we've been picking up respect of that state's refusal to stand for the monkey theory on the origin of man.

What Others Say

WHAT IS AFFECTION WORTH?

Breach of promise and alienation of affection suits seem to be on the increase. Such cases are continually in the public eye, and invariably the plaintiff asks for damages in large amounts. Some of the suits, of course, are justified. In other cases they are palpably instituted by adventurers who seek only an opportunity to make easy money. Whether or not the majority of cases are justified is a disputable question. The Law Notes magazine thinks they are not. In a leading editorial published recently it asserted that "whatever may have been the original justification for suits of alienation of affection and breach of promise, they are wholly at variance with modern law and at war with legal rules applied to every other action." The editorial refers to suits pending and adjudicated and says: "In the first place all litigation of this sort is wholly speculative; the rule otherwise obtaining that damages shall represent compensation for such loss as can be measured by some reasonably definite standard is thrown to the winds. As a result, damages in extravagant sums are claimed. It is difficult to see on what theory courts reconcile the allowance of damages."

There is good sense in this contention. Who is to say what may be the value of affection in dollars and cents? In the case of a suit for loss sustained in the death of a wage-earner, the court can estimate fairly accurately the wage-earner's potential worth, but there is no yardstick that can be used to measure the financial value of affection. But the measure of damages is not the only aspect of such suits that Law Notes finds subject to criticism.

Allowance of damages for alienation, it says, "is based on a fiction of feminine nonentity which is certainly foreign to the social and political status of today." The editorial continues: "Out of the theory that a wife is a chattel grew, logically enough, the doctrine that her affections were property, and that one who converted them to his own use was liable. The existence of actual affection is beside the point; the marriage certificate is deemed a perpetual title deed. With women placed on the same footing with men before the law, the reason for the former rule has failed."

It remains to be seen whether or not a note has been struck that will lead to action. Many suits for alienation of affection and breach of promise are blackmail, pure and simple, and the courts in giving them a hearing become party to a perversion of justice. Sensible restrictions should be worked out so that only justifiable suits can be brought before the courts; but it will not be easy to revise existing practice to this end.—Washington Post.

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of Sept. 20, 1909.)

Prof. Frank Lease new principal of the Salem High school, assumed his duties Monday.

With the largest attendance ever known in the local high school and a large attendance in all grades, the public schools of Salem began the 1909-10 school year Monday morning.

Rev. C. L. Smith, of the Methodist church this city, who has been attending the annual conference at Canton, has been assigned to the First Methodist church, Canton. The late president McKinley was a member of this church.

A pumpkin weighing 96 pounds was exhibited at the Columbiana street fair Saturday.

Salem's football season will open next Saturday afternoon at Amusement park when the Salem and Niles High schools teams will clash. Rev. E. E. Whitacre, of Canton, has been assigned to the pastorate of the Methodist church here.

Mrs. M. S. Schwartz and son, Rollin, returned Sunday from Marion, where they have been visiting Mr. Schwartz, who is ill in a sanatorium there.

Over 400 attended the rally of the Christian church Sunday school morning.

Karl Hopkins, James Bullard and Austin Kay left Monday morning for Oberlin, to begin their work in Oberlin college.

Mrs. H. C. Jones has sold a lot on East High st. to Mrs. Eleanor Wilhelm, who will build a residence on it.

The new A. M. E. church on East High st. was dedicated Sunday. In the evening Rev. H. H. Uthigrove preached his farewell sermon.

Miss Vina Bowman and Mrs. Charles Roach and two sons, left

Sunday evening for Seattle, Wash. to spend six weeks.

Tiny Humming-Bird Being Fed Honey

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 20.—A tiny humming bird that was orphaned by one of nature's unchronicled tragedies, daily is being fed honey by Mrs. Sam Schnelle of this city.

The little feathered midget was on the verge of starvation when found by Mrs. Schnelle. She fed it honey from a spoon and the bird gradually grew stronger.

The humming bird, now full grown and strong, according to Mrs. Schnelle, darts daily out of a tree and sips honey from a spoon held by Mrs. Schnelle. The humming bird answers her call at meal time without delay.

British Homes To Be Glass Furnished

London, Sept. 20.—Denham MacLaren, young British artist-decorator, who has been exploring the possibilities of all kinds of glass furniture, announces very soon it will be possible to have a house furnished entirely with glass.

He is at present working on a design for a glass armchair, the first of its kind ever contemplated. Seats of plate glass, two or three inches thick, will be held together by metal rods, and the seat will be provided by a double thickness of calfskin stretched between two other rods.

MacLaren already has built several immense circular tables of dark purple plate glass, supported on metal tubes, for London mansions.

American Type Is Standard of Beauty

New York, Sept. 20.—The American type of beauty now sets a standard for the world, according to J. J. Quinn, vice president of Pinaud, Inc., who has just returned on the Ile de France from a tour of Paris, Vienna, Budapest and other of the so-called "beauty capitals" of the world.

Mr. Quinn described the American type of beauty as clear-eyed, tanned, sturdy and shapely. It has completely eclipsed the pale, fragile drawing room type, and smart Parisiennes are now modeling themselves after it.

The couturiers have joined the beauty experts in accepting the American beauty as the ideal and are creating clothes to suit the type specifically. The women of other races, Mr. Quinn explained, are expected to adapt themselves to the clothes—as best they may.

"In order to successfully imitate the American type of beauty, French and other Continental women of fashion are taking up sports, studying the American diet and in every way possible adopting American customs and activities," Mr. Quinn said. "The ambition abroad is to change native characteristics so that only that which is American is apparent."

"There is a practical reason for this new desire to look like the American type of beauty. Americans are expected to start many vagues. The recent sun tan and stockless modes were introduced by American girls at Biarritz. While the whole world follows only the typically American, it did so successfully."

SPRING-HOLZWARTH

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

We talk a great deal about the food people eat. We advise the thin, the undernourished, and all the others affected by the lack of proper food.

The expectant mother too may need advice. Many women, or I should say, most women go about having a family with thought only for the expectant child. She should give serious thought too to her own precious self.

The foods eaten during pregnancy have a marked effect on the entire life of the child. The mother should eat the same food that would keep any woman in health and vigor. By the fourth month the food should be increased. By the end of the pregnancy the intake should be 20 per cent more than normal.

If the mother's diet is lacking in certain elements the child suffers. Iron and phosphorus are important. Unless the diet supplies these the mother must use up her own reserves. This results in her becoming decayed teeth, some weakness of the bones or other serious changes. Milk, salads, green vegetables, oranges and other fruit supply these elements.

Fats, eggs and milk will give energy as will also butter, cream, corn oil, cheese and buttermilk. These too are rich in vitamins which are so essential to proper development of the teeth and bony structures.

Without the vitamins and these other food elements the child will have soft, crumbly teeth, bowlegs, flat feet and improper posture due to poor muscles. Give the child the benefit of being well born. There are hazards enough to be overcome without adding to the burdens of life.

In addition to proper food careful attention should be given the general health of the mother. Pleasant living, congenial company and love all, a happy place to live, will insure the baby's birthright. Every thing that gives strength and vigor to the mother will go just that far in giving the baby strength and vigor.

Answers to Health Queries

A. P. Q.—How can I gain weight?

A.—Proper dieting and deep breathing is the secret. You should eat nourishing foods and have plenty of sleep and rest.

A. B. Q.—What will fill out my cheeks?

A.—You should try to gain weight in general. Eat plenty of good nourishing food including milk, eggs, fruits and vegetables. Exercise daily in the open air. Avoid overindulgence in drink and eat meals. Sleep as many hours as possible.

A. G. L. Q.—How can I gain weight?

A.—Proper dieting and deep breathing is the secret. You should eat nourishing foods and have plenty of sleep and rest. For full particulars send a self addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Mrs. J. M. Q.—What causes the left side of my face to be numb?

A.—This is due to a circulatory condition and you should consult your doctor. Poor circulation is caused by a run down state of health. Try to build up your entire system and you will benefit generally.

A. J. Q.—What causes varicose veins?

A.—This condition is caused by increased tension in the veins due to either constant external pressure or some obstruction of the deep veins or, as in many cases to habitual overexertion, such as long standing. Wearing an elastic stocking is often effective, but in most instances surgical procedure is necessary.

The Stars Say —

For Saturday, Sept. 21

The astral mutations for this day lead to excellent prospects and gratifying rewards for past efforts and stability. There is likelihood of public recognition as well as personal gratification with probable alliance long sought and profitable affiliations made with secret societies. There is some danger of personal or irregular aspects. Those whose birthday it is may expect a year of opportunity and many advantages with possible promotion and preferment of a high nature or through large corporations or secret societies. They may expect substantial rewards for labor and fidelity, but there are some signs of a sensational side to the purely personal relations. A child born on this day may be clever and industrious as well as through diplomacy, intrigue and guile, possibly in a subordinate position or in secret, etc.

Beamed for dignity composed and high exploit.

—Milton.

Matured Figures Slenderized

PATTERN 1655

Salem News 15c Practical Pattern

THE woman who is no longer slender must choose length giving lines in order to slenderize her appearance. Design 1659 does this through the long pointed vestee and rever on the bodice, and through the pointed yoke of the pleated skirt.

Dark grounds are extremely smart this season, with very tiny, bright colored designs printed on them. Plain colors, too, are much in evidence. We suggest silk crepe, satin or velvet for the development of Design 1659. Seasonal colors are brown, bottle green, black and navy blue.

May be obtained only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 3½ yards of 40 inch material and ¾ yard trimming. This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of FIFTY CENTS (15c) in coins carefully wrapped or stamped. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE wanted.

Our LATEST FASHION BOOK will be sent upon receipt of TEN CENTS in coin. Address all mail and orders to SALEM NEWS Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

HORSES INJURE SCHOOL PUPILS

Runaway Team Dashes Into Group of Children; 3 Hurt

Fremont, O., Sept. 20.—Three children were seriously hurt and several others suffered injuries today when a team of horses attached to a scraper, which was leveling the new Stamm school grounds, ran away during the recess hour and dashed into a group of children.

The driver is said to have left the team unguarded and untied while he went into the building. The horses, plunging madly, tore into a group of about 30 children. Raymond Linder, seven, had his collar bone broken. Bobby Wheeler and Clem Notestine, may have internal injuries as a result of the accident.

Notestine is a son of C. J. Notestine, who was drowned last April in a fishing accident in Sandusky bay.

Two other men met death at the same time

All of the children who were injured today are pupils in the second grade.

Faces Mann Act

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 20.—Question of whether C. Fred Edwards, millionaire mattress manufacturer, violated the Mann act when he took Mrs. Esther Watson Black, handsome middle-aged brunette with him on his "business tour" to Columbus, Toledo, New York, Boston and other cities, will be decided by a jury in Federal court here this afternoon.

Fined On Charge

Lisbon, Sept. 20.—Charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated on the Salem-Lisbon road, W. C. Kerr, of Lisbon, was fined $100 and costs by Probate Judge Riddell on information filed against him by Sheriff W. J. Barlow.

A new textile is being produced from the fiber of a kender, a plant that has been discovered growing prolifically in Asia.

Air College Plans Six Branch Schools

East St. Louis, Ill., Sept. 20.—Parks Air College, Inc., here plans to open six branch schools in six cities in the United States. This was revealed recently in an announcement by Harry Mammen, president of the Corporation.

Mammen said in his announcement that arrangements had been virtually completed for a school in Central Texas. He also stated that negotiations were under way for the opening of a school in New Jersey, which would be within reach of New Yorkers who wish to learn to fly. Another school is planned for Northern Ohio. Other locations for which preparations are being made are Southern California and a city near Boston. It is also planned to establish a school in the Northwest, probably near Seattle.

Hair that sparkles!

No one can deny the importance of having the hair arranged in the style best suited to the individual type. Much of the effect is lost, however, unless the hair is kept soft, abundant, lustrous.

A million busy women and girls know the easiest way to keep the hair in perfect condition is with Danderine. The first application will show you how marvelously it removes excess oil from the hair; cleanses it; makes it sparkle with new life and lustre. It's so simple to use Danderine. All you do is put a little on your brush each time you arrange your hair! The consistent use of Danderine will dissolve the worst crust of dandruff, soothe, heal the scalp, stimulate the growth of long, silky abundant hair. Danderine isn't sticky or oily; doesn't clog. It makes the hair easy to manage; holds it in place for hours "set" your waves with it and see how much longer they stay in.

A New Way to Make Skin Flawless

New Kind of Creme Works Like a 6-fold Facial Treatment

Whitens The Skin
Refines The Pores
Disposes Blackheads
Fills out Grooves
Cleanses Completely
Leaves Perfectly

Here is a creme you can use like ordinary cold creme... the same case, the same cleansing properties... but it brings 6-fold benefits. Made a new way... of costly ingredients never known in cold creme... it brings amazing results, or your money back.

Expect New Things

Skins that don't respond to cold creme show amazing improvement with this 6-fold creme. Blackheads dissolve. Freckles fade out. Every tiny impurity is cleared from the skin. Coarse pores are refined; they fill out naturally and permanently to smooth the texture. Crow's feet and the fine wrinkles disappear. And finally this new creme, called Gervaise Graham Beauty Secret, whitens the skin, shades whiter!

Gervaise Graham Beauty Secret is not a cold creme... not a bleach... not a skin food. In it I put the finest beauty aid known. By a painstaking laboratory process six great skin-helps are blended into one.

See what a 6-fold creme will do for your skin. See what a difference it makes when tonic oils reach all three layers of skin—not merely cleansing—but clearing, whitening and smoothing the skin to flawless texture.

Extra-large jars are on sale everywhere at $1.50. Very economical as the large jar lasts twice as long as average creams. And so utterly different is Beauty Secret that your money will be refunded if you are not simply delighted with it.

COURT NEWS

Husband Seeks Divorce

Charging his wife with gross neglect of duty, Paul Deitz through his counsel Ben L. Bennett of East Liverpool has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against his wife Marguerite Deitz of 626 Riley ave., East Liverpool. They were married June 30, 1925, and one child is in issue. While Deitz does not seek the custody of the child, he asks the court to make an order that would permit him to visit his child at reasonable times.

Sued for Bond

Milton A. Mackey of Pittsburgh, Pa., who developed Salem Heights allotment in Perry township has been sued in common pleas court by the county of Allegheny, Pennsylvania, to recover on a surety bond of $2,000 executed at Pittsburgh Sept. 8, 1927. The petition for the commonwealth of Pennsylvania has been filed in court by Brookes & Thompson of East Liverpool.

Mackey went on the bond of one A. Stenitz, whom the record shows was charged with false pretense. Allegheny county has obtained judgment against Mackey for the amount.

Judgment Asked

Judgment for $1,200 claimed owing on a note is asked in a petition filed by Henry Holland, through his counsel P. V. Mackall against J. Newton C. and Lottie B. Campbell, the instrument having been executed Sept. 27, 1926.

Receiver Asked

An application for a receiver and judgment on two notes totaling $9,000 has been set up in a petition filed in common pleas by Curtis Whitmore against Glenn Falls and others. The petition which has been filed by Attorney John E. Baughn asks that the hearing for the appointment of a receiver be heard by the court next Wednesday.

Seek Will Ruling

The court is asked to construe the provisions of a will in a petition filed by Attorney Charles C. Connell in behalf of Charles G. Enriken against Mary J. Enriken and others.

Party Defendants Named

In a petition filed in common pleas court by Attorney Ben L. Bennett on behalf of the Putters National Bank of East Liverpool against Maude Evanitcka, 52 party defendants have been named. The petition relates that the plaintiff owes the bank $2,500 on notes secured by mortgage on lot 428 East Liverpool, and this is asked to be foreclosed. Other party defendants have been asked to set up their liens or be barred from further participation in the issue.

Magnesia Best for Your Indigestion

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead, following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bismarated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bismarated Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation and make digestion easy. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get Bismarated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Rules are not always harsh restrictions that stamp one's style. Occasionally they're a guide, comfort and support, relieving us from wondering just what is the right thing to do.

The habit of setting the table correctly at all times, whether for formal or informal service has its advantages. It makes the job automatic. Also it actually simplifies service. For it happens that table etiquette, evolved over a long period, is calculated to make dining comfortable and convenient. The apparently arbitrary rules—where to place glasses and silver and what should be placed on the table—have all been evolved from the practical standpoint of the hostess. The hostess who has made herself expert in table arrangement and service can really enjoy her dinner parties, instead of dividing her attention between the conversation and the mechanics of service.

For dinner the damask cloth with napkins to match is always in good taste, although lace-trimmed or drawn-work cloths are correct. Dinner napkins should be about 24 inches square, and rest on the service plate at each place. For decoration a low bowl of flowers or fruit at the formal dinner or candlesticks are attractive. And this is where rules do not stand by themselves but require the co-operation of good taste from the hostess. Elaborate, towering centerpieces may look handsome by themselves, but if they obstruct the view of the guests or dominate the table too conspicuously they are a dead loss.

Salt cellars and pepper shakers may be at each place if they are very small, or a set may be placed between each two guests. The bread-and-butter plate, which was considered unfashionable a few years ago, is now being used more frequently because it is convenient, and it is placed at the left over the forks. Glasses at the upper right.

Forks are at the left of the service plate—fish fork, fork for main course and another for salad. But the center fork is at the extreme right, at the side of the table spoon for soup, and to the left of this the fish knife. The ends of all handles—knives, forks, spoons—should form an uneven line, one inch from the edge of the table. Whatever fork or spoon may be required for dessert is brought in when that is served.

If a maid serves, all plates containing food—oysters, soup or fish—are placed with the left hand for apparently it has been worked out that this means less risk of jostling. Empty plates may be placed at the right with the right hand.

The question of service plates is sometimes puzzling—when shall they be used, when shall they be removed, and so on. Service plates are beautiful pieces in themselves, do not match the other china. They are not used where the host or hostess do the serving themselves. At table the service plate at each cover with the folded napkin passed up in front of the guests are seated. Each course is set on it until the dish when the service plate is removed. Obviously, therefore a service plate though very elegant and ornamental would be troublesome if no maid were at hand and the hostess did the serving.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Sept. 26—Bigger and more elaborate hats for winter are being announced in fall headlines. Wider brims, very long in the back and shirred close to shallow crowns are predicted.

New models show amazing diversity and irregularity, each one seeming to take on a different air from that of its neighbor. The off-the-face movement, however, will be the most popular method to feminine flattery this winter and even hats with downward brims are shorter in front and the brim caught up or folded back.

One milliner is showing a daring black felt with shallow crown and very deep black brim. Orange velvet, crossing the front, passes through slits in the brim to flare at each side beneath in most becoming effect. Another shape which will be important this winter has the wide brim turned flat on the forehead and broadened at the sides.

Another uses milliners felt for an enlarged cloche in hunter's green with irregular brim and crown incriminated and tucked with a knot of felt for trimming and a black taupe is draped high off the forehead at the left side but pulled down over the right eye in a line which carries it out at the side.

Another new model in black satin finish taupe has felt introduced on the side of the brim and three onyx and paste buckles. It dips low on the side.

An inset and bow of pinkish mauve matching material trims a large black satin taupe which touches the shoulder on the left side and certainly fastens the ab-rence of large fur collars on coats this winter.

Fairfield, Conn.—A little cigarette butt, flung from a passing auto on a busy highway here, started a fire that has set a great tree nursery back ten years. The Bridgeport Hydraulic Co., which supplies water to the entire territory about Bridgeport, owns the nursery, which is entirely of pines. The fire burned nearly a week despite labors of 1,000 men.

CLASS OFFICERS NAMED BY VOTE

Columbiana High School Groups Select Officials

Columbiana, Sept. 20.—The various classes of Columbiana high school have elected officers for the year as follows:

Seniors—President, Willard Johnson; vice president, Lloyd Condit; secretary, Eleanor Lehman; treasurer, Lucille Funkhouser; reporter, William Keller.

Gertrude Roe, the new music director in the local schools, issued the first call for a convocation Tuesday evening, and rehearsals will be held regularly.

The main losses from last year's fine combination are Albert Thon, an cornet; and Frank Ehret, saxophone. Their places will probably be filled with recruits from the junior orchestra of last year, whose training was ably handled by Mrs. Edgar F. Miller.

HOMEWORTH

Daily day services will be held at the Presbyterian church in Homeworth Sunday September 29, with special services during Sunday school and church hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Porter and son Harry, were called to Orrville by the death of Mr. Porter's uncle, Guy South.

Miss Mary Thomas is visiting at the home of Miss Maxine Wagers, of Orrville.

Mrs. Effie Glass Anson of New Chambersburg is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hoffman, Mrs. Emma Cameron, Miss Belle Kippenstein and Miss Vera Weaver attended the homecoming at East Beach church Sunday.

Leland Meese and Miss Thelma Roger of Canton were guests of Homeworth friends Sunday.

A very pleasant time was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sanor, near Bayard Sunday. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Sanor's birthday. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harsh and daughter, Miss Helen Harsh, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Searl, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hoffman, and a few days with friends at Radenville.

Miss Vera Weaver is spending a few days at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cameron.

Miss Evelyn Humphrey spent Saturday in Lisbon.

A number of our people from Homeworth and vicinity met at the home of Mrs. Emma Cameron Friday evening to admire a very fine specimen of night blooming cereus.

Miss Alverette Peters will teach Sunday school this year. Jesse Bates will teach the grammar grade at Homeworth and Miss Ruth Hassler of Lisbon will teach the primary grade.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Roger and family of Canton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barback Sunday.

Albert Summer has returned home from the west greatly improved in health.

Mrs. Henry Aldinger and family, Maximo called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kippenstein Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Byers and family attended the Fox school reunion Sunday.

The 4-H club of Homeworth held their last meeting of the season at the home of Miss Grace Irwin last week. The club turned in a display to be exhibited at the Lisbon fair this week.

Nearly 40 students from Knox township are attending high school in Lisbon township this year.

Mr. Charles Maxwell is now vice-president for the Homeworth paper company.

Mr. C. F. Hahn is improving from her recent illness.

Persons who want anything know that The News is the Want Medium in this vicinity. So read it.

Will Sell Stocks

Lisbon, Sept. 20.—According to an order issued by Probate Judge Lodge Middle, George A. Rogers of Lisbon will sell stocks of the total value of $23,000 as a part of the estate of Mrs. Cora Holton of Lisbon who died recently and for whose estate Rogers has been named administrator.

EXHIBIT OPENS IN COLUMBIANA

10th Annual American Legion Fair Now In Progress

Columbiana, Sept. 20.—The 10th annual street fair, under the auspices of the Benjamin Franklin post, American Legion, opened here today.

A large tent is protecting the exhibits on Pittsburgh st., just off South Main st.

Entries close at 3 p. m. today and the judges will then make their awards. The exhibits must be left in the tent until 4 p. m. Saturday. The tent will be under way all Friday night.

In the Presbyterian and Baptist churches, meals will be served, while a number of refreshment booths are on the street.

The King's Daughters, class of Grace Reformed Sunday school, are selling homemade candy, cake, sandwiches, ice cream, pop, coffee, at its booth, while the Christian Sunday school has a similar concession.

Post Commander Homer C. Carr is general fair manager and also has charge of the concessions.

The other committees are headed by the following chairmen: Program, Russell M. Beck; street, H. M. Hoover; traffic, Thomas Harrod; publicity, Ray Fisher; special prize, Raymond Gleckler.

ALIBI FAILURE, MAN ARRESTED

Tried to Save Father From Facing Trial On Dry Charge

Cleveland, Sept. 20.—His attempt to establish an alibi for his father, George Wargo, a flat failure, Steve Wargo, 23, of Campbell, O., today faced charges of violation of the prohibition act and possible charges of perjury.

Young Wargo blurted into federal court testimony yesterday that he said not his father, had sold liquor to federal agents in the elder Wargo's grocery store at Campbell. The youth was testifying in the case of his father who was standing trial on a charge of selling liquor to federal agents.

At the conclusion of the testimony young Wargo was ordered taken into custody. He will be charged with violation of the prohibition act today, according to U. S. Atty. W. J. Mahon.

The father's trial continued today. Depending upon its outcome charges of perjury may also be placed against the son, it was stated.

OUR READERS

CITY EXTENSION

Editor of Salem News:

I would like to make a statement after reading your editorial on city expansion. Two reasons were given by the group of citizens favoring city expansion to the township trustees namely, that the corporate limits had not been extended for fifty years and second that they wished to increase the population of Salem. Statement has been made that this would increase the population 5,000 persons. From the school enumeration of Perry township for this year I find these figures:

266 heads of families multiply by 2 (father and mother) equals 532 voters with children, 493 children of school age, 709 voters without children, (estimated), 200 babies (estimated), 1927 total, very different from 5,000.

In regard to taxes, the rate in the township is somewhat lower than in Salem corporation. Was it not more "singularly out of place" for the residents of the township to attend this council meeting and protest this proposed action that the citizens' committee should hold a secret meeting with city council some days in advance of the regular meeting? Or that said committee should hold a conference with the county commissioners regarding said proposal in advance of any action by the council?

The township trustees were taken into conference until four days before action was to be taken by council, one day being Sunday. At this conference the trustees told the committee that they would fight it. Was that "mildly in favor" placed on second and third reading and passed at that meeting? Is not that railroading a measure through council? Since Tuesday have talked with several business men of Salem who are strongly against this proposition and I believe that if this contemplated action were taken that it would be a "white elephant" on the hands of the city of Salem. The entire township would be entitled to street lights, water, sewerage. As the improved roads of the township which are now state routes would be city streets, is Salem prepared to take care of these matters?

Strong Salem High Team To Clash With Leetonia In Opener

CLASSY RACING EVENTS CLOSE TRACK PROGRAM AT COUNTY FAIR

Stone To Select Best Combination, But Has No Idea As To Lineup

The strongest array of grid talent it is possible to select from the teams battling for varsity honors during practice sessions will meet Salem High when it faces Leetonia High in the opening game of the season tomorrow at Reilly Stadium, Saturday afternoon.

Undoubtedly Coach Floyd Stone will make every assurance that the team he selects will be the strongest eleven, but he will be unable to make his selections until just previous to the opening whistle, for as yet there is no "first team."

Like Coach Gil Doble, the Red and Black mentor has assumed a policy of select towards the coming season, and is uncertain as to the result of the varsity which he is unable to select for tomorrow. The last scrimmage of the week was held last night at the school field, and still there isn't one player out of the entire four squads that is named of a starting berth.

As when the season's practices have opened, Stone still feels the loss of a dependable kicker, and also conducting extensive investigations into various candidates for prospective talents as ends. Two classy backs are needed, and badly too, for the lack of a distance-punter would be a great handicap if a couple of touchdowns could be uncovered within the next 24 hours.

Leetonia Has Hopes
Down in Leetonia they're thinking the coming tussle over rather seriously, for fans there regard this as a fine opportunity to wreak revenge on the Red and Black for past trimmings. Only once in Leetonia High history has a Blue and White grid machine won a decision over a Salem team, and it is Coach Riley's finest hope that tomorrow will mark the second occasion of such an epochal event.

But in Salem thoughts run exactly to the contrary, for Salem is certain of defeating Leetonia by at least two touchdowns. Last Saturday Leetonia played its opening game, being defeated 31-6 by the Alumni, but the setback was excusable in that Riley's lads were opposed by some of the best in Blue and White history. The entire Salem team saw the game, and came away in an optimistic mood confident that victory will be Salem's tomorrow.

Stone's pessimism is due entirely to the fact that there is no booster on the team that can claim the dependability of past Salem punters, nor are there ends that can chase down the field and nab punt-receivers or passes with certainty. At least this has been indicated at the majority of workouts so far, and although progress is made, gradually, although slowly, the outlook can't be bragged about yet.

By the time the team stacks up against its second opponent, next Saturday, changes in the play of the team, if anything is to be desired tomorrow, will no doubt be seen. The majority of the lads who will get to start tomorrow will be mere "kids," as far as regular experience is concerned, and one football game will bring great improvements.

Leetonia Starters
Riley will probably start Paul Hunsman and Neil Kueeemyer at the positions Stone is worrying most about—the ends—with Ralph Peterson and Joseph Kozak, tackles, Gilbert Weikart and Ken Waggoner, guards, and Bob Holland, center. Harvey Stumpo, Merle Huff, tackle halves, Donald Bailey, full back, and Carl Stambaugh, quarter, will probably form the backfield. Then in reserve will be Wren Atkinson, Butch Miller, Mancuso, Weikert, Girard, Stouffer, Holloway, Tittler and Leeson.

Bailey and Schmid formed Salem's end combination at last night's practice and didn't do at all bad, while Norm Early and Keyes performed for what might be called the second string aggregation, and showed promise, also. Keyes, especially proved to be a corner, being an almost sure tackler. He is a freshman. August Corso and Len Yates looked best for tackle positions, while John Terry and Mike Corso were given chances to work out with the prospective regulars.

Definite Lineup Uncertain
Webster and Ray Smith formed one guard combination, and Hippy and George Ballantine the second. Whitcomb and Wiggins were at guards on the third team, and Jimmy Corso on the fourth. It will be between the first four names for starting calls against tomorrow. Paul Sartick will in all probability start at center, with Sidinger and Barnes in reserve.

Stone has several combinations available for the backfield, and there is really quite a bit of outstanding quality included in the array. With Glenn Whinnery and Bill Smith back to start things off with, if there was no knicker to locate, Stone would have to find only the two best out of the remaining numbers, but then the punting problem may force the revamping of the entire team.

Sammy Drakulich, Johnny French, Henry Reese, Yarwood, Joe Volpe, and Ed Beck are fighting it out for other backfield posts. Drakulich, Volpe, French or Beck are the leading contenders for two halfback positions.

Ohio Colleges To Play First Games

Cleveland, Sept. 20.—While nearly two score Ohio college football squads were winding up the first week of their early season training, three of the Buckeye state's college teams were preparing to open the season tomorrow. Only one game is scheduled for an Ohio gridiron. One team travels to another state for its contest.

Bluffton of the Northwest conference, and Ohio Northern, a member of the Ohio conference, tangle at Bluffton, Cedarville, an unaffiliated school from southern Ohio, left its camp early today for Lexington, Ky., where it meets Transylvania college in an annual affair.

Bluffton and Northern are two of the keener rivals in the state, their relations on athletic fields dating back to the gay nineties. A 13-13 tie game was witnessed by the fans last year when these two teams engaged. Bluffton can always be counted on to put up a scrappy battle, while the strength of the Polar Bears is not known so early in the season.

Not much is known of the small Cedarville team, but the Kentuckians have established high respect among Buckeye institutions in recent years, and are never considered lightly.

Fight Results

At Kansas City—George Manley beat Bennie Ross (10).
At Milwaukee—Harry Dublinski defeated Irvan Bernot (8).
At Vallejo, Cal.—Sergio Radam, San Francisco bantam knocked out Mike Dundee, Brooklyn (2).
At San Rafael, Cal.—George Stone, Salt Lake, knocked out Manuel Vasquez, El Paso welter (2).

Speedy Heats Feature Thursday Contests As Fair Closes For Year

Boat racing during the two day meet at the Columbiana county fair was witnessed Thursday afternoon in the second and third heats of the first and second events. There was a nose finish in the third event of the first race when Mollie O., owned by C. W. Shaffer of Spokane, O., put her head under the wire before Lou Sanders owned by Lawrence Chaffey of Painesville.

In the second heat of the race, Lou Sanders trailed the field when the word was given by starter Dr. W. F. Wise of Medina. The horse made steady gains in the first lap, and when coming down the home stretch went into second position and held this place under the wire.

The second and third heats of the second event were just as exciting as the last two heats in the first race. In the first heat of this race Queen Bingen, owned by H. G. Kountz of Wellsville took the heat. There was a decided change during the next two heats of this race, and considerable money changed hands as a result.

Alfred Todd owned by Fred S. Gellen of St. Clairsville was the favorite and was out in front at the three-quarter point when Ella Mae owned by Brooks Bros. of Medina went through an opening and on the last turn went into the lead and edged Alfred Todd out of first money for the heat. The heat was one of the prettiest run during the afternoon. The third heat also went to Ella Mae and second place to Alfred Todd.

The 2:14 pace and last race on the card was won in three straight heats by Willmat, owned by J. H. Aumick of Cleveland.

At the start of the last heat of this race other drivers got Willmat in a pocket and held the horse in this position until near the three-quarter pole, when it shot through an opening between Walter M. and Prince Mac and went under the wire a length ahead of Walter M. From the start the four horses in this heat were "bunched" until Willmat went through the field.

The three races of nine heats were run in record time, the entire card having been finished at 4 o'clock, although the first heat of the first race did not start until 1:30 o'clock.

Results follow:
2:18 pace—1—Mollie O. bm. C. W. Shaffer, Spokane 2:11; 2—The Jaunt, bg. G. M. Earle, New Philadelphia 1:33; Lou Sanders, blk m. Lawrence Chaffey, Painesville, 5:2 2: Time—2:17½, 2:17, 2:17½

2:16 trot—1—Ella Mae, bm. Brooks Bros. Medina 3:11; 2—Alfred Todd, bg. Fred S. Gellen, St. Clairsville 4:22; Checker the Great, blk g. M. N. Goodrich, Painesville, 2:33; 3—Queen Bingen, bm. H. G. Kountz, Wellsville, 1:56 6 Times—2:15, 2:15, 2:16

2:14 pace—Willmat, blk g. J. H. Aumick, Cleveland, 1:11; Prince Mac, bg. M. N. Goodrich, Painesville, 4:23; Walter M. bg. Harper H. Dick, New Castle, 3:42; Robert Gold, sq. Shearer and Steinmetz, Canton, 2:34 4 Times—2:16, 2:13, 2:14

Max Fisher Rated For Center Post

Columbus, Sept. 20.—Max Fisher, formerly of Salem, is being rated as one of the leading prospects for the center position on the Ohio State football squad, which today prepared to settle down to real business, after a few days preliminary work.

Fisher for two years saw service mostly from the sideline, but this season is expected to break into the lineup of the Scarlet and Gray eleven.

He played center for Salem High in 1923.

Gridders to Meet

The first meeting preparatory to the organization of a semi-pro football team for Salem, will be held at the Memorial building at 7:30 tonight. All former members of the Altohouse-Studebaker team and other sandlot gridders are requested to attend.

Bats Of Heavy Hitters Silent As No Homers Are Registered

New York, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Here's one for the books—all five feet of them—Here's one that should make Mr. Believe It Or Not, Ripley chuckle with glee.

There was not a single solitary home run hit in the major leagues yesterday. This despite the fact that all save two of the clubs were in action including the mighty George Herman Ruth himself. That little fellow you saw scurrying along this morning with his overcoat pulled over his head was the little fellow that has been shrieking about the lively ball all season.

Just in order that they might not lose the habit of winning before they meet the Athletics in October, Chicago shut-out the Giants, 5 to 0. Pat Malone did the shut-out despite a chilly wind that came singing across the lake. Hornsby got two out of three to pull even with Bill Terry in the hitting race.

The Pirates played miserably, being Burrell Grimes as the Braves trimmed them, 6 to 3.

Ray Koly limited the Phils to four hits as his fellow redlegs turned in a 4 to 0 win.

Brooklyn and St. Louis were not scheduled.

Summons was the only regular in the Athletics lineup as they defeated the Tigers, 5 to 4. Burns, playing first for the new champions, made two hits, two runs and 11 put-outs.

With the Yankee stadium resembling nothing so much as it did an Eskimo igloo, the White Sox put the Yankees on ice, 7 to 0. McKain held the Huguen to four singles, all scattered.

Washington scored two in the last half of the ninth to pull out a 2 to 1 winner over the Browns. Blueholder and Melillo executed a triple play in the ninth.

Milton Gaston held the Indians to six hits as the Red Sox triumphed 4 to 2.

Sun Tan Craze To Last All Winter

Chicago, Sept. 20. — Though the first may be on the pumpkin, the craze for that sun-tan complexion will continue according to expert advice.

Through the winter with the sun-tan will go the new long bob to young ladies, while the older women will prefer the shorter, bob, the association predicted. Its report showed that more money was spent for cosmetics last year than both men and women spent for tobacco, candy and movies combined.

 Statistics are offered to show that American women used 4,000 tons of powder during 1929, enough to reach from Chicago to Los Angeles, via San Francisco; 2,000 tons of cleansing cream; 26,250 tons of skin lotion; 19,100 tons of complexion soap; 17,500 tons of nourishing cream; 8,750 tons of foundation cream; 6,562 tons of bath powder and 2,375 tons of rouge.

Even when modulated to whisper volume,

Lookout for Danger in Placing Radio Aerials

Due to the rapid increase in the number of radio receiving sets installed in and about the city, it has become necessary again to sound a

WARNING OF DANGER

in the installation of outside aerials. Death, serious injury or destruction of property may be avoided by seeing that YOUR aerial is properly constructed.

Never string aerials over, under or close to any other wire. They may come into contact with highly charged wires, resulting in death, injury or fire.

Do not attach aerials to poles, towers or other supports carrying wires of any sort. It is DANGEROUS.

Always attach aerials to substantial supports and remember it is quite practical to operate most receiving sets with indoor aerials.

Parents are especially requested to co-operate in carrying out these safety suggestions.

This company never has, and cannot, in any circumstance, grant permission to any one to attach aerials to its poles.

"THUNDER"

The surge and thunder of a great railroad is contrasted with delicate romance and a gorgeous love story in Lon Chaney's latest starring vehicle, "Thunder." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's sound synchronized epic of the steel trail, now playing at the State theater.

Amid the runs of limited trains, the spectacular settings of huge railroad yards and with the Mississippi floods as a thrill, the love tale of a boy and girl and a still more human story of the love of a father and his two sons, is worked out into an enthralling evening's entertainment. The picture has thrills and laughs, tears and bewilderment, all woven into a blend of engrossing entertainment.

Chaney used to blame roles, has one in this picture that is a vivid contrast. He plays "Grumpy" Anderson, grizzled old veteran of the throttle, piloting his crack limited through the snows, staging a thrilling run to the rescue in the flood, and living and breathing the traditions of the road. His love for his engine, his belief that no man is any good unless he's a railroad man—all these are strikingly true to life. Incidentally, he had to wear a moustache—for the first time in years—because old time engineers usually do!

Phyllis Haver plays the heroine, an actress who tempts the old engineer's fireman son, James Murray, to leave the road for a "white collar" job, which almost breaks the old man's heart. In the end it is her love and understanding that returns the son to the railroad and to his father. George Duryea plays the other son, a brakeman, who is killed on duty, a tragic sidelight on the perils of railroad life.

"AIR CIRCUS"

Proving that they are as adept in touching the heart strings of film fans as they are in providing laughter, three young film satellites swept across the screen at the Royal theater yesterday in "The Air Circus," and etched their names more deeply into the film favorite lists of those assembled.

"The Air Circus" is a picture that grips one's interest with the opening scene and never releases it. This one, unlike many plots, is unfolded in such a manner as to keep one guessing right down to the final radeout. David Rollins, around whom the major portion of the story revolves, captivates with his boyish wholesomeness, and exceptional handling of the opus by Howard Hawks and Lew Seiler, the directors, keeps "Rollins" victory over fear of the air encountering so many obstacles that it seems doubtful until the last few minutes of the picture, whether it will be victory or failure.

Sue Carol is the sister of the aviation school owner, played by Charles Delaney. Sue is an air instructor and it falls to her lot to teach Rollins and his pal, Arthur Lake, how to fly a plane. Young Lake takes to flying like a duck to water, but Rollins, who theoretically should excel Lake because Rollins' brother scored success as an overseas ace, develops fear in the air which is accentuated when Rollins cracks up in two attempts to handle a plane in the air. Delaney, the owner of the school, and his sister who helps him, both are anxious that Rollins give a creditable performance as a flyer, but their hopes seem destined to go unrealized.

However, when Lake's life is endangered through a sheared off landing gear as he goes aloft, Rollins forges his air fear and thinks only of warning his pal. He goes up, accomplishes his purpose, then discovers that he needs a friend and counselor himself to get his plane down. This friendly counselor is shown in the phantom form of his dead brother—an air hero—who helps him bring his ship to a successful landing and thus Rollins not only wins over his air fear, but wins the girl Sue Carol as well.

Ford's Antiques Placed On Show

Boston, Sept. 20.—Many of the antiques gathered by Henry Ford to furnish his Wayside Inn will be on view at the Copley Plaza October 14 and 16 when the Women's Council of Boston University holds its festival and antique treasure exhibit.

Only early American antiques with a definite colonial history will be included in the exhibition. Among the pieces which have never been on exhibition before but will be seen at the Copley Plaza festival are the General John Stark

I Had To Force Myself To Work

"But I Had Renewed Energy, Fine Appetite and Sound Sleep After Taking Owa-Ton-Na"

Mr. Robert Gourley, 161 Charles St., S. E., Massillon, Ohio, says: "When I tried Owa-Ton-Na, I did not feel that the first bottle would do me a great deal of good, but I want to say it made a great change in my condition. Almost with the first dose, I could see that my system was getting a real cleansing. My stomach toned up and my appetite improved greatly."

"I was not troubled with that scurvy and gas as I had been before. I have renewed energy and when I get up in the morning, I do not feel tired. Dizziness has disappeared and I lost that grouchy, irritable feeling. I can certainly recommend Owa-Ton-Na to those who are suffering as I did."

Owa-Ton-Na is nature's own remedy for the kidneys, liver, stomach and intestines. A trial bottle will convince you. Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at Floding's, Bolger & French and J. H. Lease drug stores. —Adt.

EAST ROCHESTER

The League of Women Voters met at Mrs. Howard Yoder in Minerva Tuesday evening. A covered dish dinner was served at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Helen Fred gave an interesting talk on "Child Welfare." There were 16 present. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor of East Rochester attended. During the social hour, coffee and cake were enjoyed.

The I. T. Sunday school class of the M. E. church was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olin McDonald in Minerva Thursday evening. Several contests were enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodward, Misses Velma McNelly, Viola Cowden and Gladys Halderman, Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pim, Kathryn Bates, Rheuben Brand, Mrs. James Bane and daughter Thelma.

Mrs. Ella Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ray of Minerva and Donald Hayman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kersey Hayman of East Rochester, were united in marriage Sunday at the Methodist church at Union Falls, O., by Rev. S. S. Burdick. The couple were accompanied by Miss Ruth Harter of Minerva, Perry Lippincott of East Rochester. A double ring ceremony was used. Mrs. Hayman graduated from Minerva High school and Canton Business college and is employed as stenographer at the American Electric Switch company. Mr. Hayman is employed in East Rochester. The couple will make their home with the bride's parents in Minerva for the present.

Mrs. Wiseman Foulks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lower of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Glass of Salem and Dr. Charles Emmons of Cleveland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Emmons Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Albright visited relatives in Akron Sunday.

Rev. J. T. Gardner attended the Eastern Ohio conference at Cambridge. He will remain in E. Rochester for another year as pastor of the M. E. church.

A farewell party and handkerchief shower was given Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. M. W. McDonald, who will leave Thursday for Zanesville where she and her husband will make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Onstott and family, owing to the ill health of Mr. McDonald. The members of the Busy Workers Sunday school class gave the party. The president, Mrs. Krieg, presided. Mrs. Alban Taylor was in charge of the program consisting of songs and a concert, each one receiving a prize.

Mrs. M. W. McDonald received a very pretty guest prize. Mrs. J. T. Gardner gave a reading. Rheumatism Is Quickly Routed By New Konjola

Stomach and Kidney Troubles, Too, Yield Completely When Modern Medicine Gets Its Chance

DR. DAVID FENSTERMAKER

"I had been troubled with rheumatic pains throughout my entire life," said Dr. David Fenstermaker, 39 Guy Street, Massillon, Ohio. "Every bone and muscle ached. My kidneys were in a very bad condition. I had to get up three or four times every night due to bladder actions. My rest was disturbed, and sound sleep was out of the question. My stomach also troubled me. Food fermented and caused gas to form. Constipation added to my discomfort.

"After a few weeks' treatment of Konjola, the rheumatic pains gradually lessened. My kidneys were corrected, and I was able to enjoy full night's rest. Konjola simply banishes constipation and liver trouble. My stomach has been restored to a healthy condition. I am glad to endorse Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Salem, O., at all J. H. Lease drug stores, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Motor Built Of Junked Planes Establishes New Speed Record

Salem, Sept. 20.—An automotive engineer, boasting some of the features of an airplane, an automobile and a motorcycle, is now cruising the streets of Boston and mystifying pedestrians who fear they have a new type of perambulating menage a trois.

The "Whatzit," as it has been called by its ingenious owner, Charles Hill, is six feet long, three inches wide and can attain a speed of 35 miles an hour.

Power is furnished by a discarded motorcycle motor from a discarded motorcycle. It has a kick starter and a motorcycle but runs on wheels shaped from an airplane. Frames from two motorcycle sidecars and motorcycle springs formed the nucleus of the coachwork.

An automobile radiator was placed in the vehicle and the gleaming aluminum hood of an old lim-

Fight Over House Delays New Library

New Haven, Sept. 20.—The owner of a boarding house for months held up a part of the Yale Sterling Memorial Library, now being erected here, and now a shoe maker is holding up progress toward the making of the enormous Yale medical center, an undertaking that will dwarf the Sterling Library job.

Giocomo Cono, cobbler, refused to vacate his shop on Broad Street even when about him the ruins were crashing and a part of his shop roof was taken away. Giocomo showed a lease, good until the end of 1932 and he wouldn't get out. Instead, he secured an injunction against the contractors razing his business.

The Yale Library project was finally cleared last summer when the boarding house owner accepted Yale's offer for the slender brick building that Yale was gradually sealing within the walls of the li-

Cranberry Crop Is Early This Season

Boston, Sept. 20.—A cranberry marketing closely to the five year average is forecast for Massachusetts. Berries this season are average in size but the dry weather has caused them to ripen early.

A total crop of 375,000 barrels has been estimated by the New England reporting service of the Department of Agriculture. This figure compares favorably with the 1938 crop of 335,000 barrels and the 10-year average of 376 barrels.

The yield in Barnstable county "Cream" is probably the most has been lighter than usual, while material improvement has been made in the Plymouth county crop. The bloom this year was unusually heavy but the set was little more than average.

According to reports from growers, Early Blacks are expected to total 34 per cent of the 1939 crop as compared with 51 per cent of last year's yield. Howes are reported at 10 per cent this season as compared with 39 per cent in 1938.

Practically all fruit crops in New England have been reported comparatively light, the yield of apples, peaches, pears, and grapes all scaling below the average.

Bad Hersfeld—Boring near the mineral springs known as the Lull spring, which was known to the Germans but then forgotten and only rediscovered some 25 years ago, has brought in another mineral spring. The new one, which will soon be ready for use, is similar to the springs of Baden-Baden and Ems.

SPENT $1500 TRYING TO GET WELL

Then Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brought Relief

This startling letter from an ex-service man will interest everyone who suffers from constipation.

"I was discharged after the World War with heart trouble and bad stomach. I had saved about $1500. Since then I've spent that sum and a lot more on doctoring and operations and medicines. I always was bothered with constipation.

"I told my wife to get some kind of light breakfast food and I would try it. She came home with a small package of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I ate it for breakfast, lunch and dinner, about a common tea-saucer full with milk at each meal. I have been doing this for about a month. I have stopped taking dope (medicines). I work 9 to 12 hours. I have a good appetite. And now I am getting well and believe I am getting well."

George C. O'Connell, Barker, N. Y.

Cleanse your system of constipation's poisons. Thousands have regained their old-time vigor and vim, stopped constipation forever, by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

Eat two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Relief is guaranteed. ALL-BRAN is 100% bran. 100% effective—doctors recommend it. Ready-to-serve with milk or cream. Use in cooking. See the recipes on the package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers. Served in leading hotels and restaurants—dining cars.

It Costs Only $5.33 Per Year To Have THE BEST PAINT

We guarantee Armstrong House Paint to be equal to the highest priced paint made—yet it sells for $1.17 less. It is superior to many of the so-called "highest priced paints." It will last fully five years, maintaining an excellent surface for re-painting. Figure it out yourself. It takes 8 gallons to paint the average house—a cost of $26.64, or $5.33 per year. Can you afford to be "penny-wise and pound-foolish" and experiment with cheap paints when the cost per year for the best is so small? Armstrong House Paint, per gallon $3.33

We recommend Armstrong House Paint to you because it will last you five years and the cost per year is less than any paint sold, regardless of price. The less you pay for paint, the less coverage per gallon you get and the less service it will give you.

We can sell paint as cheap as anybody—cheaper than the majority—as low priced as 99 cents per gallon, but we won't handle this "pound foolish" product. We have Fulton Brand at $2.63 and Kilbourn Brand at $1.77, but it is folly to pay less than the latter price for paint.

Paint is no different than any other product—it cannot magically be made to sell for a song and give you the service you'd expect from a first quality product.
